

Oregon Rohingya Myanmar Muslim Society (ORMMS)

NEW PROGRAM LAUNCH

Digital Bridge: Reducing Linguistic & Digital Disparities For Our Community

By Oregon Rohingya Myanmar Muslim Society (ORMMS)

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

ORMMS is launching Digital Bridge, a community-driven initiative designed to close the gap in language access and digital information for Rohingya, Myanmar(Burmese), all other families.

This program creates multilingual video content and digital resources to ensure families can access important services with confidence.

WHAT WE OFFER

Multilingual Video Production

Community Media Broadcast

Digital Access & Education

Youth Media Training

Training on how to access online services
Support navigating digital platforms

Hands-on training in video production & editing
Build skills in storytelling, technology, and media

Culturally Responsive Content

- Delivered in Rohingya, Burmese & community languages
- Designed for oral and visual learning styles

WHO CAN JOIN?

- Rohingya & Myanmar(Burmese), Karen, Chin, all other families
- Youth interested in media & technology
- Community members needing language-access resources

LANGUAGE SUPPORT

Available in:
Rohingya | Burmese | Karen | Zomi | English

PROGRAM LOCATION

East Portland Community (Division Area)
Community media broadcast platforms

GET INVOLVED / SIGN UP

Email: info@ormms.org

Phone: (503) 489-5179

Website: <https://www.ormms.org/>

Join as a participant, volunteer, or community partner

Scan to Get Involved!

WHY DIGITAL BRIDGE?

Improve access to critical information

Break language barriers

Empower community voices

Build digital skills for the future

OUR GOAL

To create a sustainable, community-led media hub that delivers culturally and linguistically accessible information to underserved families.

Location:

ORMMS Community Office
2410 SE 121st Ave Suite 208
Portland, OR 97216

Contact:

info@ormms.org

FUNDED BY
MHCRC & ORMMS

Empowering voices.

Connecting communities.